Commonwealth of Virginia, Rockingham County, to-wit:

Be it remembered that on the 28th day of November 1927, James Rosson, Gork Raines, and Jack Rosson came before me, Harry M. Strickler, Bail Commissioner of the said County of Rockingham, and severally and respectively acknowledged themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in manner and form following, that is to say: the said James Rosson in the sum of five hundred dollars and the said Gork Raines in the sum of Two hundred fifty dollars and the said Jack Rosson in the sum of Two hundred fifty dollars cash ^{deposit} good and lawful money of the United States, to be respectively made and levied of their several goods and chattels, lands and tenements, and they severally waived the benefit of their Homestead Exemption as to this obligation, to the use of the Commonwealth of Virginia, if the said James Rosson shall make default in the performance of the condition underwritten.

The condition of the above recognizance is such that if the above bound James Rosson do and shall personally appear before the Circuit Court of the said County on the first day of the next term thereof which is on the 19th day of December, 1927, at the Court House thereof, and then and there answer the Commonwealth for and concerning a certain felony by him committed, wherewith he stands charged, or to any time or times to which the proceedings may be continued or further heard, and before any Court or Judge, hereafter having or holding any proceedings in connection with the said charge, and not depart thence without leave of said Court, and be bound under this recognizance until said charge is finally disposed of or until it is declared void by an order of a competent Court, then this recognizance shall be null and void, otherwise shall remain in full force and virtue.
