COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,

COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM, to-wit:

100

In the Circuit Court of said County:

Thegrand jurors in and for the body of mid County of Rockingham and now attending mid Court at its June term, 1923, upon their oaths do present that Weldon Kniceley within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in the said County of Rockingham, did unlawfully manufacture, sell, offer, keep, store and expose for sale, give away, transport, dispense, solicit, advertise and receive orders for ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of H. W.

Hoover, a witness sworn in Court and sent before the grand jury to give evidence.

Information in Commonwealth vs. One Ford Touring Car, Engine No. 6080507.

The answer of Chas. H. Knicely to an information filed in the Circuit Court of Rockingham County, by D. W. Earman, Commonwealth's Attorney for said County, for the purpose of having the Court adjudge One Ford Touring Car, Engine No. 6080507, forfeited to the Commonwealth of Virginia for violation of Chapter 388 of the Acts of Assembly of 1918, as amended;

This Respondent reserving to himself the benefit of all exceptions to the said information, for answer thereto, or to such parts thereof, as he is advised it is material for him to answer, answering says:

That Respondent lives near Greenmount on his farm, in Rockingham County, Virginia, and is the owner of said car;

That his son, Weldon C. Knicely, to whom he loaned his car is alleged to have had on his person or in said car a small quantity of ardent spirits;

That Respondent knew nothing of the ardent spirits being in the car or in the possession of his said son, or that he contemplated transporting in said car or otherwise any ardent spirits, nor did he have any reason to suspect that his said son was conveying or would convey liquor in Respondent's said car;

Your Respondent denies the right of the Commonwealth to forfeit said car, for violation of the Law on the part of his said son, who had no interest therein, and for a violation of the said Law by him in which Respondent took no part and of which Respondent had no knowledge;

And having fully answered Respondent prays that the said information be dismissed;

acquit of all liability to the sate of Virginia, and that all
