COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM, to-wit:

In the Circuit Court of said County:

1000 . 001 . 1014

The grand jurors in and for the body of said County of Rockingham and now attending said Court at its October term, 1922, upon their oaths, do present that Raleigh Newman within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in the said County of Rockingham, did unlawfully manufacture, sell, offer, keep, store and expose for sale, give away, transport, dispense, solicit, advertise and receive orders for ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present that Raleigh Newman within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment in the said County of Rockingham, did unlawfully and feloniously manufacture, sell, offer, keep, store and expose for sale, give away, transport, dispense, solicit, advertise and receive orders for ardent spirits; and then and there the said Raleigh Newman committed the second offense against the prohibition laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia in that the said Raleigh Newman was convicted for unlawfully keeping and having in his possession ardent spirits on November 2, 1921, by John W. Morrison, Mayor of the City of Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, and then and there was sentenced to pay a fine of $50.00 and to serve for a period of sixty days on the State convict road force, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of C. R. Fawley and John Logan, witnesses sworn in Court and sent before the grand jury to give evidence.

We, the jury find the accused Rawley Newman, guilty of <sup>of same spirit as charged in this</sup> unlawful transportation, and pay his punishment at six months imprisonment in jail and a fine of five dollars.
