Cassandra Lawson Atkins, and others, and fifty-two thousand, five hundred and sixty one acres (52,561) more or less, of land in Rockingham County, Virginia, Defendants.

Upon motion of Petitioner, this 14th day of March, 1932, it is ordered that the following notice be published once a week for two successive weeks in The Daily News-Record, a newspaper published and circulated in Rockingham County, Virginia:

The State Commission on Conservation & Development of the State of Virginia, Petitioner,

v. At Law—
Cassandra Lawson Atkins, and others, and fifty-two thousand, five hundred and sixty one acres, (52,561) more or less, of land in Rockingham County, Virginia, Defendants.

Notice of the time and place of hearings to be held in this case as provided in Section 29 of the To whom it may concern:

Pursuant to an order of the Judge of this Court in this case, this notice is hereby given:

In this suit the "Petitioner", the State Commission on Conservation & Development of the State of Virginia, seeks to acquire by condemnation for its uses, and for use as a public park for public park purposes, a fee simple title to a tract of 52,561 acres of land, more or less, situated in Rockingham County, Virginia, and described in the petition and exhibits attached thereto and filed therewith, and likewise described in the notice of condemnation heretofore published and posted;

THIS IS, THEREFORE, to notify and warn all whom it may concern, and all persons whomsoever owning or claiming any right, title, estate, or interest in or to said land, or any part thereof, or in or to the proceeds arising from a condemnation thereof, or to incidental damages arising out of such condemnation, that hearings by the Board of Appraisal Commissioners provided in Section 29 of said Public Park Condemnation Act, as to the fact or facts of value, of said land, or of any right, title, estate or interest owned or claimed therein, or of claims in or to the proceeds arising from a condemnation thereof, or to incidental damages arising out of such condemnation, will be had at the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Rockingham County, Va., on Saturday, April 30th, 1932, at twelve o'clock noon, at which time and place all such persons and their legal representatives who are desirous to be heard shall attend and advise the Board in writing of their desire to be heard, and a failure so to do may be deemed and held to be a waiver of their right to be heard.

No claimant who has heretofore submitted evidence as to such fact, or facts of value, is required to appear at the time and place herein designated but if he desires to submit further or additional evidence he may appear and do so; and any such claimant may amend his original claim, provided such amended claim be filed in this proceeding in the Clerk's Office in the manner and form provided for the filing of original claims prior to Saturday, April 30th, 1932, and evidence submitted in support of such amended claims will be considered by the Board of Appraisal Commissioners, unless objection
