COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,

COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM, to-wit:

In the Circuit Court of said County:

The grand jurors in and for the body of said county of Rockingham and now attending said Court at its August term, 1928, upon their oaths do present that H. E. Sandridge, on or about May 14, 1928, in said county of Rockingham, did unlawfully operate an automobile while under the influence of ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of Lester Beydler, Hensel Riddleberger, and _____ Simmers, witnesses sworn in Court and sent before the grand jury to give evidence.

We the jury find the defendant, H. E. Sandridge, guilty as charged in the indictment and pay his punishment at thirty days in jail and a fine of $150.00

Commonwealth's Attorney

State of Virginia,
County of Rockingham, to-wit;

Be it remembered that on the 25th day of May, 1928, Henry E. Sandridge came before me, Harry M. Strickler, Bail commissioner, of the said County of Rockingham and acknowledged himself indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars cash bail, good and lawful money of the United States, which has been deposited with me, to be respectively made and levied of his goods and chattels, lands and tenements and he waived his Homestead Exemption as to this obligation, to the use of the Commonwealth of Virginia, if the said Henry E. Sandridge shall make default in the performance of the condition underwritten.

The condition of the above recognizance is such that if the above bound Henry E. Sandridge do and shall personally appear before the Circuit Court of said County on the first day of the next term thereof at 10 a.m. at the Court House thereof, which is on the 18th day of June, 1928, and then and there answer the Commonwealth for and concerning a certain misdemeanor by him committed wherewith he stands charged, or to any time or times to which the proceedings may be continued or further heard, and before any Court or Judge, hereafter having or holding any proceedings in connection with the said charge, and not depart thence without leave of Court, and be bound under this recognizance until said charge is finally disposed of or until it is declared void by a competent Court, then this recognizance shall be null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Harry M. Strickler
Bail Commissioner.

State of Virginia,
County of Rockingham, ss-wit:

As it is remembered that on the 25th day of May, 1928, Henry E. Sandridge came before me, Harry M. Strickler, Bail Commissioner, of the said County of Rockingham and acknowledged himself indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the sum of five hundred dollars cash and lawful money of the United States, which has been deposited with me, to be respectively used and levied of his goods and chattels, lands and tenements and he waived his homestead and Exemption as to this obligation, to the use of the Commonwealth of Virginia, if the said Henry E. Sandridge shall make defect in the performance of the condition underwritten.

The condition of the above recognizance is such that if the above bond Henry E. Sandridge do and shall personally appear before the Circuit Court of said County on the first day of the next term thereof at 10 a.m. at the Court House thereof, which is the 10th day of June, 1928, and then and there answer the Commonwealth for the recovery of a certain indebtedness of him contained wherein he stands charged, or to any one or ones to which the proceedings may be continued or further heard, and before any Court or Judge, hereafter having or holding any proceedings in connection with the said charge, and not depart thence without leave of Court, and be bound under this recognizance until said charge is finally disposed of or until it is declared void by a competent Court, then this recognizance shall be null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
