

This indenture made the twenty third day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen between John Sellers overseer of the poor of the county of Rockingham of the one part and Jacob Kisling of the said county of the other part, witnesseth that the said John Sellers overseer of the poor as aforesaid hath in conformity to an order of the court of the aforesaid county dated March court 1813 put placed and bound Robert Glass a poor boy whose family is not able to support him and by these presents do put place and bind Robert Glass of the age of five years old the twenty seventh day of July next to be an apprentice with him the said Jacob Kisling to dwell from the date of these presents until he attains the age of twenty one years according to the act of assembly in that case made and provided by and During all which time the said Robert Glass shall the said Jacob Kisling his master well and truly serve in a;; such lawful business as the said Robert Glass shall be put unto by his said master according to the power, with and ability of him the said Robert Glass and honestly and obediently in all things shall behave himself towards his master and honestly and obediently towards the family of his mast and the said Jacob Kisling for his part for himself his executors and administrators doth hereby promise and covenant to and with the said overseer of the poor and his successors for the time being and to and with the said Robert Glass that he the Jacob Kisling shall this said Robert Glass in the craft mystery and occupation of a cooper which he the said Jacob Kisling now useth after the best manner he can or may teach instruct and inform or cause to be instructed and informed as much as belongs to said art or mystery of a cooper as aforesaid, and the said Jacob Kisling shall also find and allow unto the said Robert Glass sufficient meat drink washing lodging and apparel and all other things useful or necessary for an apprentice During the said term as aforesaid and also shall teach or cause to be taught the said Robert Glass reading writing and common arithmetic including the rule of three and moreover pay unto the said Robert Glass at the expiration of his said term twenty dollars

In witness whereof the parties have here unto set their hands and seals this day and year first above written