COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,

COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM, to-wit:

In the Circuit Court of said County:

The grand jurors in and for the body of said county of Rockingham and now attending said Court at its October term, 1925, upon their oaths do present that Paul Halteman, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in the said county of Rockingham, did unlawfully manufacture, sell, offer, keep, store and expose for sale, give away, transport, dispense, solicit, advertise and receive orders for ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

And the jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present that Paul Halteman, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in the said county of Rockingham, did unlawfully have in his possession ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

And the jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present that Paul Halteman, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in the said county of Rockingham, did unlawfully receive ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of John Funk and Tom Lloyd, witnesses sworn in court and sent before the grand jury to give evidence.

INSTRUCTION NO. 1.

The Court instructs the jury that in all criminal cases the defendant's plea of not guilty raises a presumption of innocence in his favor, which it is the duty of the Commonwealth, before it can ask for a conviction, to overcome by evidence which establishes the guilt of the accused beyond every reasonable doubt, therefore if the jury after hearing the whole case entertain any reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the accused, it is their duty to find him not guilty; and the Court further tells the jury that a reasonable doubt is that state of the case which after comparison and consideration of all the evidence, leaves the minds of the jurors in such condition that they cannot say that they feel an abiding conviction to a moral certainty of the truth of the charge.
