

This indenture made this 12th day of October in the year 1802 and in the 20th year of the independence of the United States of America between John Graham and David Rolsten overseers of the poor of the south district of the county of Rockingham of the one part and alexander Graham of said county of the other part Witnesseth that the said overseers aforesaid by virtue of an order of the court of the aforesaid county bearing date the September Coart last past have put placed and bound and by these presents doe put place and bind William Donovan a poor boy of the age of ten years and six months to be an apprentice with him the said Alexander Graham to dwell with him until he the said William Donovan shall come to the age of twenty one year According to the act of Assembly in that case made and provided during all which time the said William Donovan shall the said Alexander Graham faithfully serve in all lawfull business as the said apprentice shall be directed to doe by said master and shall honestly and faithfully behave himself towards the said masters fammelly and the said Alexander Graham on his part his heirs executors doth hereby promise to and with the said overseers of the poor and every of their successors for the time being to and with the said apprentice that he the said master shall the said apprentice teach or cause to be taught the art and mistery of the sadling business after the best manner and that he the said master shall furnish the said apprentice with sufficient deit and cloathing during the term above mentioned and also that the said master shall cause the said apprentice to be taught reading and righting and common arithmatick including the rule of three and will pay unto said apprentice the sum of twelve dollars at the expiration of the aforesaid term in witness whereof the partys have here unto sett their hands and seals the day and year above mentioned