Commonwealth of Virginia,

County of Rockingham, to-wit:

In the Circuit Court of said County:

The jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for the body of the County of Rockingham, and now attending the Circuit Court of said county, <sup>at its August term 1919</sup> UPON THEIR OATHS PRESENT, that D.T.Fox, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in said County, did unlawfully manufacture, sell, offer, keep, store and expose for sale, give away, transport, dispense, solicit, advertise and receive orders for ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

AND THE JURORS AFORESAID, UPON THEIR OATHS AFORESAID, DO FURTHER PRESENT, that T.D.Fox, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in said County, did unlawfully keep and store ardent spirits in a house other than his home, to-wit, in an out house commonly known as a granary,

against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of Oletus Knight,

Goldie Chapman, Raymond Newman,

witnesses sworn in Court and sent before the Grand Jury to give evidence.
