

This indenture made this 14th day of January in the year of our Lord 1812 between Elizabeth Firebough and Henry Firebough of the county of Rockingham and state of Virginia of the one part and Joseph Kochenour of the same county and state of the other part Witnesseth that the said Henry Firebough voluntarily and with the approbation of the said Elizabeth Firebough his guardian, hath put placed and bound himself and by these presents doth put place and bind himself to be an apprentice with him the said Joseph Kochenour, and as an apprentice with him the said Kochenour to dwell for the term of three seasons nine months in each season, to commence the first day of March next and to end on the first day of December, in each year for the term of three years, during all which term the said Elizabeth Firebough and Henry Firebough doth covenant and agree to and with the said Kochenour that the said Henry Firebough, the said Kochenour shall well and faithfully serve in all such lawfull business as the said Henry Firebough shall be out unto by his said master, according to the best of the power, wit, and ability of him the said Henry Firebough and honestly and obediently shall behave himself towards the said Joseph Kochenour, and honestly and orderly towards the family of the said Kochenour and the said Kochenour on his part doth covenant and agree to and with the said Henry Firebough, that he the said Kochenour will well and truly instruct the said Henry Firebough in the art or mystery of a stone mason and brick laying, which the said Kochenour now followeth and will in all due diligence to make the said Henry Firebough as perfect in the said art or mystery of a stone mason or bricklaying as possible and that the said Kochenour will allow to the said Henry Firebough good and sufficient meat, drink, washing, mending, and lodging for the term of nine months in each season and the said Kochenour agrees to give unto said Henry Firebough twenty dollars at the expiration of every season for the term first above mentioned and he the said Kochenour also agrees to give the said Henry Firebough six days in every harvest for himself. In witness whereof the parties to these presents have hereunto set their hands and affixed their seal the day and year first above written