VIRGINIA. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF RAPPAHANNOCK COUNTY, IN VACATION.

The State Commission on Conservation & Development of the State of Virginia, Petitioner,

v.

AT LAW NO. 149

Clifton Ayler and others, and thirty-seven
thousand, four hundred (37,400) acres, of land, more or less, Defendants.

Upon motion of petitioner it is ordered that the following notice be published once a week for two successive weeks in the Blue Ridge Guide, a newspaper published and circulated in Rappahahannock County, Virginia:

The State Commission on Conservation & Development of the State of Virginia, Petitioner,

v.

At Law No. 149

Clifton Ayler and others, and thirty-seven
thousand, four hundred (37,400) acres, of
land, more or less, Defendants.

Notice of the time and place of hearings to be held in this case as provided in Section 29 of the Public Park Condemnation Act.
To Whom it May Concern:

Pursuant to an order of the Judge of this Court in this case, this notice is hereby given;

In this suit the "Petitioner", the State Commission on Conservation & Development of the State of Virginia, seeks to acquire by condemnation for its uses, and for use as a public park and for public park purposes, a fee simple title to a tract of 37,400 acres of land, more or less, situated in ^{Rappahannock} Warren County, Virginia, and described in the petition and exhibits attached thereto and filed therewith, and likewise described in the notice of condemnation heretofore published and posted;

THIS IS, THEREFORE, to notify and warn all whom it may concern, and all persons whomsoever owning or claiming any right, title, estate, or interest in or to said land, or any part thereof, or in or to the proceeds arising from a condemnation thereof, or to incidental damages arising out of such condemnation, that hearings by the Board of Appraisal Commissioners as provided in Section 29 of said Public Park Condemnation Act, as to the fact, or facts of value, of said land, or of any right, title, estate or interest owned or claimed therein; or of claims in or to the proceeds arising from a condemnation thereof, or to incidental damages arising out of such condemnation, will be had at the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Rappahannock, on the 30th day of March, 1931 at twelve o'clock noon, at which time and place all such persons and their legal representatives who are desirous to be heard shall attend and advise the Board in writing of their desire to be heard, and a failure so to do may be deemed and held to be a waiver of their right to be heard.

No claimant who has heretofore submitted evidence as to such fact, or facts of value, is required to appear at the time and place herein designated; but if he desires to submit further or additional evidence he may appear and do so; and any such claimant may amend his original claim, provided such amended claim be filed in this proceeding in the Clerk's Office in the manner and form provided for the filing of original claims prior to said 30th day of March, 1931, and evidence submitted in support of such amended claims will be understood by the Board of Appraisal Commissioners, unless objection thereto is made by the Petitioner, in which event neither such amended claim nor the evidence in support thereof will be considered until the further order of this Court.

Any owner or claimant who has not appeared and filed his claim as provided by said Act may file such claim in the manner and form provided by said Act, prior to said 30th day of March, 1931, and such claim and the evidence submitted in support thereof shall be considered by the Board of Appraisal Commissioners, unless objection thereto is made by the Petitioner, in which event, neither the claim nor the evidence in support thereof, will be considered until the further order of this Court.

The Clerk of the Circuit Court of Rappahannock County, Virginia, will enter the foregoing upon the Common Law Order Book of this Court as a Vacation Order.

Given under my hand in Vacation at Leesburg, Virginia,
