

VIRGINIA. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF MADISON COUNTY.

December 18th, 1934.

State Commission on Conservation &
Development of the State of Virginia, Plaintiff, v.

UNLAWFUL DETAINER.

Douglas Cave, - - - - - Defendant.

This day came the plaintiff by counsel and the defendant being solemnly called, came not.

Whereupon it being made to appear to the Court that the defendant has been duly served with process to answer the plaintiff's action and has had reasonable notice thereof and he still failing to appear, plead, answer or demur;

Upon motion of the plaintiff and upon the evidence submitted by it, it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff do recover of the said defendant, Douglas Cave, possession of the land mentioned in the plaintiff's writ; and that the Clerk of this Court do issue a writ of possession for said lands and place the same in the hands of the Sheriff of this County, who shall execute the same;

And it is further considered by the Court that the plaintiff do recover of the defendant, its costs by it in this behalf expended.
