

Rockingham County to wit

The jurors for the body of the County sworn in this own presence that John Allebaugh the Surveyor of the public road ^{in the County of Rockingham} commencing on the western side of Harrisonburg turnpike road at the mouth of the Lane river the 2^d Allebaughs house and running thence by Frederick Chines mill and ending twenty feet south of the Road that goes from the new Courtin Martins house to the the plantation which formerly belonged to John Hardman and has failed and neglected to keep the bridge in good repair Frederick Chines mill (where a bridge is necessary) twelve feet broad uneven and in poor repair and in good repair to wit on the 15th of July 1837 at the County Court and within the jurisdiction of the Court

This Indictment is found on the evidence of Isaac Barnes a witness sworn but by the grand jury

Con - a - worth ~ { Judson -
the student
John Althaus

1837 Feb. 1st
Hards down at night
Cats

Feb. 31

active
see Mr. Deffen
Jennison