

Hamtenth Judicial Circuit. Rockingham County to wit - In the circuit Court of said County. The jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia in and for the body of the County of Rockingham and now attending the Circuit Court of said County upon their oaths present that Albert Nicholas on the 1st day of August 1887 at the said County (be the said Albert Nicholas then and there being the surveyor of that part of a certain said leading from the top of Hites hill in the said County to ^{of the widow Nicholas} opposite the house in said County and in precinct No 7) did not as such surveyor on that day cause that part of the said road to be kept cleared, smoothed of rocks and obstructions, of the roadway width, well drained and otherwise in good order, and secure from the falling of dead timber therein, but did on that day and divers other days between that day and the day of making this presentment, and whilst he was surveyor as aforesaid suffer that part of said road to be and remain for a long space of time obstructed and in bad order and insecure from the falling of dead timber therein, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth. This indictment is found on the evidence of Benjamin Ewing one of the grand jury sworn in court to give evidence before the grand jury
