

Ruttingham County To wit:

In the present Court of said County the Jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia in and for the body of the County of Ruttingham, and now attending said Court - upon their oath present - That Henry Carpenter on the 3rd day of January in the year 1864, in the said County, one gray mare, of the value of five hundred dollars, the property and of the goods and chattels of one John C. Walker Then and there being present, feloniously did Take steal and carry away, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia

This Indictment is found upon the evidence of R. T. Kengree and James W. Blease - with napers sworn in Court and sent to the Grand Jury to give evidence -

Commonwealth
Indemnity for Grand Larceny
Henry Carpenter

---

A true Bill
Joseph Burdett
Foreman

---