vs
Gabriel Munroe

Upon the trial of this cause the Commonwealth in order to support the indictment offered a witness A. G. Hall by whom it was proposed to prove that on the night of in the year 1870 the outhouse called a New house referred to in the indictment, was the property of the said A. G. Hall; and that the same was broken open and feloniously entered at the time of aforesaid, and that certain chickens therein found were feloniously taken stolen and carried away &c.

But the prisoner by his counsel moved the Court to exclude the said evidence tending to show that the outhouse referred to in the indictment was the property of said A. G. Hall. as that ~~the~~^{an} outhouse of said A. the property of said A. G. Hall was broken open and entered as aforesaid.

Which motion to exclude the evidence aforesaid the Court overruled. to which action of the Court overruling the said motion and admitting the evidence aforesaid the prisoner by his counsel excepted, and prayed that this his bill of exceptions might be signed, sealed, enrolled and made a part of the record, which is accordingly done.
