

Sept. 1876

State of Virginia;
Rockingham County, to wit.
In the County Court of the said County.

The jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for the body of the County of Rockingham, and now attending the County Court of the said County, upon their oath present that James Guadalupe, on the day of 1876, in the said County, three chairs of the value of one dollar each, three butcher knives of the value of one dollar each, one saw knife of the value of two dollars, one half bushel measure of the value of one dollar, ten pounds of soap of the value of one dollar, one keg of the value of fifty cents, three pairs curtains of the value of twenty cents each, five pieces of stone pipe of the value of twenty five cents each, one lot of buttons of the value of twenty five cents, one lot of spoons of the value of fifty cents, two brushes of the value of fifty cents, one blanket of

One blanket of the value of one dollar and fifty cents, two spreads of the value of one dollar each, one cork screw of the value of twenty five cents, one tea kettle of the value of seventy five cents, one Hambooster of the value of one dollar, one stone heater of the value of one dollar and fifty cents, one coffee mill of the value of fifty cents, two pairs of yarn socks of the value of fifty cents each, two wooden kegs of the value of fifty cents each, one piece of oil cloth of the value of one dollar, one egg carrier of the value of one dollar, one meal sifter of the value of seventy five cents and one gublet of the value of ten cents, of the goods and chattels of one M. Y. Partlow, then and there being found, feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia, This indictment is found on the testimony of M. Y. Partlow & G. P. Kyle. Witnesses sworn in Court and sent before the Grand jury to give evidence,

No 2,
Campanaulet
vs
James Goodale, Indictment for Larceny

A true bill
L H Carrier
Governor
A. true bill upon the evidence of J. P. Hilde Sept 1st 1876. Arraigned & pleaded not guilty.

Sept. 1876

State of Virginia.

Rockingham County, to wit
In the County Court of the County

The Jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for for the body of the County of Rockingham and now attending the County Court of the said County, upon their oath present that James Goodale, on the day of — 1876, in the said County, one axe of the value of One dollar and fifty cents, of the goods and chattels of one J. S. Bowenback, then and there being found, feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia. This indictment is found on the testimony of J. R. Hyde.

Witness sworn in Court and sent before the Grand Jury to give evidence,

No 3.
Commonwealth
vs

James Goodale
Indictment for
Petit Larceny,

A true bill
S H Carrier
Foreman,

~~A true bill up on~~
~~the evidence of J. P. Hyde~~

State of Virginia:

Sept. 1876

Rockingham County. With:

In the County Court of the said County

The Jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for the body of the County of Rockingham and now attending the County Court of the said County upon their oath present that James Goodloe on the day 1876, in the said County, two coats of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each, five pairs of socks of the value of two dollars, one pair of pants of the value of two dollars and fifty cents, two towels of the value of twenty cents each, one suit of boys clothing of the value of fifty cents, three vests of the value of fifty cents each, of the goods and chattels of one John H. Warrman and then and there being found feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia - This Indictment is found on the testimony of -

John H. Warrman
Witness sworn in Court and sent before the Grand Jury to give evidence

No 4
Commonwealth
vs
James Goodloe

Indictment for Petit Larceny.

A true bill
S. H. Carrier

Foreman

~~A true bill~~ upon the evidence of John H. Hartmann

1876

State of Virginia,
Rockingham County Court:
In the County Court of the said
County.

The Jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for the body of the County of Rockingham and now attending the County-Court of the said County upon their oath present that James Goodloe on the day of 1876, in the said County, one pair of Gauntlets of the value of fifty-cents, one knife of the value of one dollar, Spoons of the value of one dollar and fifty cents, Dishes of the value of twenty five cents, Comforts of the value of one dollar and fifty cents, and one comb of the value of forty-cents, of the goods and Chattels of one J. B.
Bruffey, then and there being found; feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia. This Indictment is found on the testimony of J. N. Bruffey.
Witness, Sworn in Court and sent before the Grand Jury to give evidence.

No 5.

Commonwealth
vs
James Goodloe
Indictment for
Robt Larceny

A true bill
L. Harrier

Forman

A true bill upon
~~the evidence of J. Bruffie~~