

State of Virginia, Rockingham County, to-wit:

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE SAID COUNTY:

The Jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for the body of the County of Rockingham, and now attending the said Court, upon their oath present, that on the 25th day of April, in the year 1887, a special election upon the question of "liquor license" or "no liquor license," was held in and for Central Magisterial District, in said county, in accordance with Chapter 248, Acts of Assembly of Virginia, 1885-'86,—at which said election a majority of the votes cast were cast against license for the sale of intoxicating liquors within the limits of the said Magisterial District, thereby prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the limits of said Magisterial District after the 30th day of April, 1887, the day upon which license to sell wine, ardent spirits, &c., in said Magisterial District under the then existing law would expire. And that Daniel O'Donnell, on the 15th day of June, in the year 1889, and on divers other days since the said day of June, in the year 1889, within the time monster immediately preceding the 20th day of June in the year 1889, within the limits of said Magisterial District, in said county, did then and there unlawfully sell intoxicating liquors to W. H. Wines, Spirituous and malt liquors and a mixture thereof against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of Wm. Furry and Richard Davis, witnesses ^{as} sworn in court and sent before the Grand Jury to give evidence.
