INDICTMENT FOR A

vs.

{ Felony

David Hollar

A TRUE BILL.

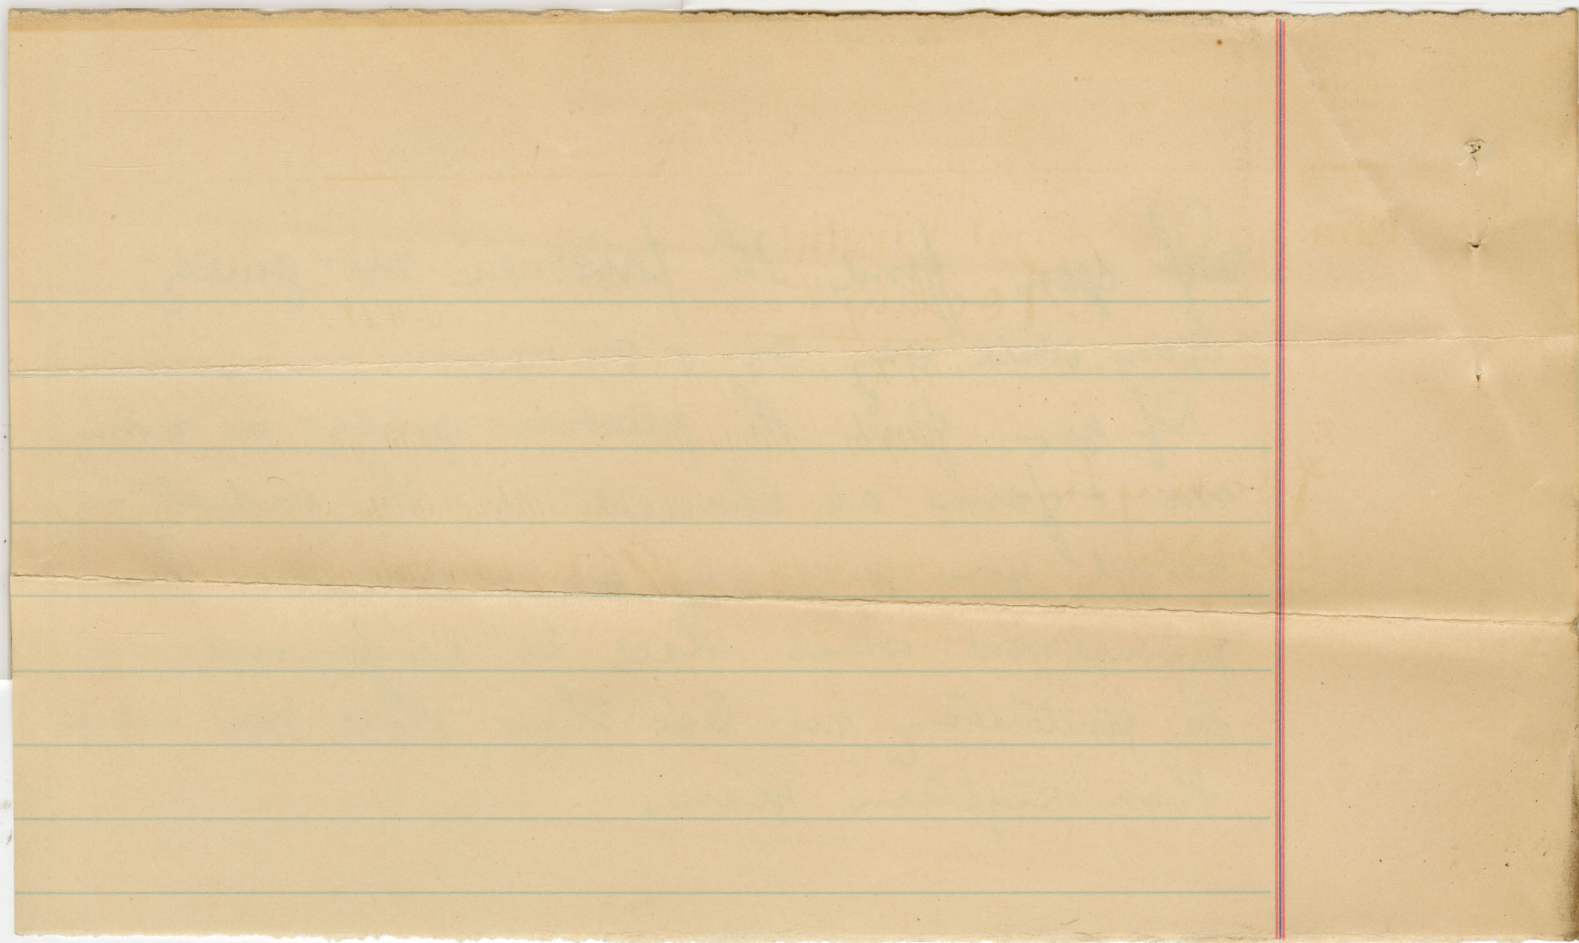

D. S. Harrison

Foreman.

We the jury find the prisoner David Hollar not guilty
Jury W. B. Campbell Foreman
Harrison

If you find the prisoner not-guilty-you will say so & no more.

If you find the prisoner guilty- in manner & form as charged in the indictment- you will say so & ascertain his punishment- which shall be confinement- in the penitentiary not- less than three nor more than eighteen years.

The Jury are instructed that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proven guilty from the evidence beyond any reasonable doubt and that unless they believe from the evidence beyond any reasonable doubt that the accused in the first instance acquired possession of the horse of Charles Venev with the intent to steal the same they must find him not guilty

but if they believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant ~~accused~~ defendant obtained possession of the horse of Charles Venev during a treaty for a trade ~~of~~ of horses with said Venev, which trade was never consummated, and ~~was~~ fraudulently carried the horse away with the purpose of depriving the said Venev thereof permanently, then they ~~shall~~ ^{may} find the defendant guilty—

We the Jury find the Prisoner not guilty of the Charge found in the Indictment.

J. K. P. Egan (Foreman).
