Virginia, Rockingham County, to wit:-
This day, O. B. Tolles, Receiver, of Rockingham County, Virginia, personally appeared before me, FREDERICK BRYAN, a Justice of the Peace, in and for said County, and made oath that on or about the 15th day of February, 1901, one Nathan Platte, James Simpson and John Flick, did feloniously take and carry away from the store of Nathan Platte, various articles and goods belonging to said store, to wit, tools, and material to an amount of five hundred dollars ($500.00) Dollars. And he, the said Nathan Platte, prays that the said Nathan Platte, John Flick, may be apprehended and held to answer for the same, and dealt with in relation thereto, as the law

Frederick Bryan
Justice of the Peace

State of Virginia - County of Rockingham Know all men by these presents, that we John Flick and W. B. Minick and W. J. Flick both of the County of Rockingham, are held and justly bound unto the Common wealth of Virginia, in the sum of Five hundred Dollars, to be paid unto the Commonwealth. And as to this debt and obligation, we each hereby waive the benefit of our Homestead Exemptions under the laws of the State of Virginia - Witness our hands and seals, this 21st day of March 1901 -

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bound John Flick has this day been examined before W. J. Potts, a Justice of said County in ^{the presence of} a warrant charging him with having feloniously taken, stolen and carried away certain goods and wares the property of O. B. Roller Recd. for the Broadway Pottery at Broadway, Virginia; and upon said examination, it being shown that there is reasonable grounds to suspect the guilt of the said John Flick: Now, therefore if the said John Flick shall make good his appearance before the County Court of the County of Rockingham Va., on the first day of the May Term 1901 of said Court, to answer further said charge, and not depart there without the leave of said Court, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue -
