BE IT REMEMBERED, that on this 12th day of February, 1901, D. D. Moyers and D. O. Decheat, personally appeared before me, O. B. ROLLER, Mayor of the Town of Harrisonburg, and ex officio a Justice of the Peace for said County, and severally acknowledged themselves to owe the Commonwealth of Virginia, as follows, that is to say, the said D. D. Moyers the sum of $ 50.⁰⁰, and the said D. O. Decheat the sum of $ 50.⁰⁰, of their respective goods and chattels, lands and tenements, to be levied, and for the use of the Commonwealth rendered:

Yet upon this condition, that whereas the said D. D. Moyers was this day tried before me, O. B. Roller, Mayor of the Town of Harrisonburg, and ex officio a justice as aforesaid, for a misdemeanor in this, that he, on being required by C. O. Henton, a special policeman for the Town of Harrisonburg, to assist him, the said Henton, in the execution of his ^{office} in a criminal case, and in the preservation of the peace and ~~in~~ the apprehending or securing of one James Black~~s~~ for a breach of the peace and in the case of the escape or rescue of the said James Black~~s~~ and he, the said Moyers, refusing or neglecting to do as requested by said Special Policeman, C. O. Henton, the said Moyers, was, by me, upon evidence on oath of sundry witnesses, found guilty of said offence, and by me adjudged to pay a fine of Five Dollars; from which said judgment and conviction the said D. D. Moyers took an appeal to the next term of the County Court of said County. Now, if the said D. D. Moyers shall ~~XXXXXX~~ personally appear before the said County Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, to answer the commonwealth for and concerning the said offence, whereof he has been found guilty and convicted by me, and shall not thence depart without leave of the said Court, then this recognizance shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
