The said defendants by their Attorney Come and say that the Commonwealth of Virginia should not have execution against them for the sum of money, set forth in said recognizance because they say when these defendants entered into said recognizance they were informed by the Justice ---J---S---Good that they would be notified by said Good when this defendant Elias Craun should appear before the Circuit Court of Rockingham County. And these defendants relying upon that information, did not appear here on the 15th. day of January, 1906, and were not aware that any proceedings would be taken against them in default of their appearance as afore-said, and did not know that the said Elias Craun, was in default in not so appearing until they were informed by some one that these proceedings on this recognizance were being taken against them. Upon this information, said Elias Craun, came at once to the Court-house, employed Counsel and surrendered him-self and is now ready and willing to give Bond for his appearance at any term of Court which may be fixed by this Court for his trial. No possible damage has been done the Commonwealth except the cost of this proceeding and this he is ready and willing to pay. And this they are ready to verify.

The said defendants by their Attorney Come and say that the Commonwealth of Virginia should not have execution against them for the sum of money, set forth in said recognizance because they say when these defendants entered into said recognizance they were informed by the Justice -- J. S. -- Good that they would be notified by said Good when this defendant Miss Green should appear before the Circuit Court of Rockingham County. And these defendants relying upon that information, did not appear here on the 15th day of January 1906, and were not aware that any proceedings would be taken against them in default of their appearance as above said, and did not know that said Miss Green, was in default in not so appearing until they were informed by one that these proceedings on this recognizance were being taken against them. Upon this information, said Miss Green, came to the Court-house, employed Counsel and surrendered him-self and is now ready and willing to give Bond for his appearance at any term of Court which may be fixed by this Court for his trial. No possible damage has been done the Commonwealth except the cost of this proceeding and this he is ready
