State of Virginia, Rockingham County, to-wit:

In the County Court of the said County:

The Jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for the body of the County of Rockingham, and now ~~at its November Term in the year 1909~~ attending the said Court, UPON THEIR OATH PRESENT, that Samuel Green on the 15th day of October in the year 1909, in the said county, a certain outhouse, called a Pen House the property of one B. Frank Garber not adjoining to or occupied with the dwelling-house of the said B. Frank Garber there situated in the night time of that day, feloniously did break and enter, with intent the goods and chattles of the said B. Frank Garber in the said outhouse then and there being, feloniously to steal, take and carry away. And eleven chickens of the value of eight dollars of the goods and chattles of the said B. Frank Garber in the said outhouse, then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia. And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present, that Samuel Green on the 15th day of October, in the year 1909, in the said County, a certain outhouse, called a Pen House, the property of one B. Frank Garber not adjoining to or occupied with the dwelling-house of the said B. Frank Garber there situated, in the day time of that day feloniously did break and enter, with intent the goods and chattels of the said B. Frank Garber in the said outhouse then and there being, feloniously to steal, take and carry away. And eleven chickens of the value of eight dollars of the goods and chattels of the said B. Frank Garber in the said outhouse, then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia. And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present, that

Samuel Green, on the 15th day of October, in the year 1909, in the said County, a certain outhouse, called a Pen House, the property of one B. Frank Garber, not adjoining to or occupied with the dwelling house of the said

B. Frank Garber, there situated, in the night time of that day feloniously did enter, without breaking the same, with intent the goods and chattels of the said B. Frank Garber in the said outhouse then and there being, feloniously to steal, take and carry away. And eleven chickens of the value of eight dollars of the goods and chattels of the said B. Frank Garber in the said outhouse then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of Mrs. Frank Garber, Mrs. Eliza Ralish, Mr. Dillard H. H. Weaver, witness sworn in Court and sent before the Grand Jury to give evidence.

We the jury find the prisoner Samuel Green
