COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,

COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM, TO-WIT:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF SAID COUNTY:

The jurors of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in and for the body of the County of Rockingham and now attending the said Court at its March term, in the year 1909 upon their oaths present that on the 16th day of October, in the year 1908, in the said County at the Circuit Court held for the said County on the 16th day of October, 1908, at the Courthouse thereof, by T. N. Haas, Judge of the said Court, Layton Hensley, Reuben Hensley and Kemper Hensley were jointly tried on an indictment for a felony, to-wit, for feloniously entering in the night-time of the 22d day of September in the year 1908, the barn of Mrs. Sarah M Van Pelt in said County with intent to commit larceny therein, and certain grain in said barn then and there stored, did steal, take and carry away, as more fully appears by the records of the said Court, and that upon the trial of the said Layton Hensley, Reuben Hensley and Kemper Hensley for the felony aforesaid, Wade Green appeared in said Court as a witness for and on behalf of the said Layton Hensley, Reuben Hensley and Kemper Hensley and was then and there in said County in the Court aforesaid, duly sworn by the said Circuit Court, then and there sitting upon the trial aforesaid, that the evidence he should give upon the said trial should be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, the said Circuit Court having authority by law to administer said oath, and that upon the trial of the said Layton Hensley, Reuben Hensley and Kemper Hensley for the felony aforesaid, it then and there became material to inquire whether the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley drove from the town of Harrisonburg, a team of horses hitched to what is commonly known as a road wagon, on which was a new wagon-body, to their home east of the said town on the night of the said 22d day of September, 1908, and whether in so doing they passed with their wagon along the public road known as the Rockingham Turnpike ^{and} near the barn of the said Mrs. Sarah M. Van Pelt and whether said wagon stopped on said road on said trip at a point near the said barn and whether at the time the said Layton Reuben and Kemper Hensley passed along said road, near said barn, any other person or persons than the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley were in or accompanied their said wagon, and particularly whether the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley were with the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley in their said wagon from a point on said road west of the said barn and near the residence of the said Wade Green to a point beyond the premises and barn of the said Mrs. Sarah M. Van Pelt, and east of the said barn and premises, where said public road is intersected by a road leading to what is known as Massanetta Springs or Taylor Springs and whether the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley on the night of the said 22d day of September, 1908, went from a point near the residence of the said Wade Green at between nine and ten o'clock of said night of September 22, 1908, in company with the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley and passed by the said barn of Mrs. Sarah M. Van Pelt without either the said Layton, Reuben or Kemper Hensley or the said Wade Green or Dorsey Hensley stopping at or near the said barn and whether the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley accompanied the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley on said night of September 22, 1908, from said point near Wade Green's residence as far as the road leading from the Rockingham Turnpike southward to Massanetta Springs or Taylor Springs and whether at said last named point, to-wit, the junction of said Turnpike and Taylor Springs road the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley left the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley and went into the woods east of said Taylor Springs road and immediately in front of and east of Massanetta or Taylor Springs and there, with dogs, hunted coon, from about ten o'clock until about twelve o'clock of said night of September 22, 1908, and thereupon, the Rockingham Turnpike near the barn of the said Mrs. Sarah M. Green and whether said wagon stopped on said road on said trip at a point near the said barn and whether at the time the said lay- for Herben and Kemper Henaley passed along said road, near said barn, any other person or persons than the said Layton, Herben and Kemper Henaley were in or accompanied their said wagon, and particularly whether the said Wade Green and Dorsey Henaley were with the said Layton, Herben and Kemper Henaley in their said wagon from a point on said road west of the said barn and near the residence of the said Wade Green to a point beyond the premises and barn of the said Mrs. Sarah M. Green, Van Peit, and east of the said barn and premises, where said public road is intersected by a road leading to what is known as Massachusetts Springs or Taylor Springs and whether the said Wade Green and Dorsey Henaley on the night of the said 22d day of September, 1908, went from a point near the residence of the said Wade Green at between nine and ten o'clock of said night of September 22, 1908, in company with the said Layton, Herben and Kemper Henaley and passed by the said barn of Mrs. Sarah M. Green, Van Peit without either the said Layton, Herben or Kemper Henaley or the said Wade Green or Dorsey Henaley stopping at or near the said barn and whether the said Wade Green and Dorsey Henaley accompanied the said Layton, Herben and Kemper Henaley on said night of September 22, 1908, from said point near Wade Green's residence as far as the road leading from the Rockingham Turnpike southward to Massachusetts Springs or Taylor Springs and whether at said last named point, to- wit, the junction of said Turnpike and Taylor Springs road the said Wade Green and Dorsey Henaley left the said Layton, Herben and Kemper Henaley and went into the woods east of said Taylor Springs road and immediately in front of and east of Massachusetts or Taylor Springs and there, with dogs, hunted coon, from about ten o'clock until about twelve o'clock of said night of September 22, 1908, and thereupon, the said Wade Green being sworn as a witness, he, on the said trial in the County aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully and corruptly deposed ^{and} falsely swore and testified, among other things, that on the night of the said 22d day of September, in the year 1908, he, the said Wade Green, in company with the said Dorsey Hensley, left the residence of the said Wade Green for the purpose of going coon hunting, and that at about half past nine or ten o'clock, he, the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley were overtaken near the residence of the said Green and on a public road known as the Rockingham Turnpike, by a wagon going in an easterly direction which wagon was occupied by said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley and that said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley were driving two horses hitched to a road wagon on which was a new wagon-body and that he, the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley then and there got into the said wagon body and rode with the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley therein, on the said Rockingham Turnpike to a point about four miles east of Harrisonburg where a public road leads southward from the said Rockingham Turnpike to Massanetta or Taylor Springs, and that in so traveling in company with the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley, they passed along and over the said Rockingham Turnpike near and by the said barn of Mrs. Sarah M. Van Pelt's, and that the wagon in which they were riding did not stop on said trip at or near the said barn of Mrs. Sarah M. Van Pelt and that neither the said Layton, Reuben or Kemper Hensley got out of the said wagon or went to the said barn at the time said wagon passed near or by the said barn, and that he, the said Wade Green and the said Dorsey Hensley left the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley at the said point on said Rockingham Turnpike where the public road leads southward to Massanetta or Taylor Springs and that he, the said Wade Green, and Dorsey Hensley, after leaving said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley as aforesaid on said night ^{of September 22nd 1908}, went to a certain piece of woods immediately in front of and east of said Massanetta or Taylor Springs, ~~and there~~ the said Wade Green being sworn as a witness, he, on the said trial in the County aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully and corruptly deposed falsely swore and testified, among other things, that on the night of the said 22d day of September, in the year 1808, he, the said Wade Green, in company with the said Horsey Henaley, left the residence of the said Wade Green for the purpose of going soon hunting, and that at about half past nine or ten o'clock, he, the said Wade Green and Horsey Henaley were overtaken near the residence of the said Green and on a public road known as the Rockingham Turnpike, by a wagon going in an easterly direction which wagon was occupied by said Layton, Herben and Keger Henaley and that said Layton, Herben and Keger Henaley were driving two horses hitched to a road wagon on which was a new wagon-body and that he, the said Wade Green and Horsey Henaley then and there got into the said wagon body and rode with the said Layton, Herben and Keger Henaley therein, on the said Rockingham Turnpike to a point about four miles east of Hart-sonburg where a public road leads southward from the said Rockingham Turnpike to Massanetta or Taylor Springs, and that in so traveling in company with the said Layton, Herben and Keger Henaley, they passed along and over the said Rockingham Turnpike near and by the said barn of Mrs. Van Pelt's, and that the wagon in which they were riding did not stop on said trip or near the said barn of Mrs. Van Pelt and that neither the said Layton, Herben or Keger Henaley got out of the said wagon or went to the said barn at the time said wagon passed near or by the said barn, and that he, the said Wade Green and the said Horsey Henaley left the said Layton, Herben and Keger Henaley at the said point on said Rockingham Turnpike where the public road leads southward to Massanetta or Taylor Springs and that he, the said Wade Green and Horsey Henaley, after leaving said Layton, Herben and Keger Henaley as aforesaid on said night, went to a certain piece of woods immediately in front of and east of said Massanetta or Taylor Springs, and there and east of said Taylor Springs road and there, by the aid of dogs, which had accompanied him and the said Dorsey Hensley, hunted through the said woods for coon, from about ten o'clock of said night of September 22, 1908, until about twelve o'clock of the same night, whereas in truth and in fact neither the said Wade Green nor Dorsey Hensley left the residence of the said Wade Green on the night of the said 22d of September, 1908, to go hunting for coon, nor did the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley accompany the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley from a point on the said Rockingham Turnpike near Wade Green's house along and over said Turnpike ^{by} or near the said barn of the said Mrs. Sarah M Van Pelt to a point on said Turnpike where a public road leads southward to Massanetta or Taylor Springs, nor did the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley or either of them with dogs or otherwise, hunt on the said night of the 22d of September, 1908, in the said wood, ^{the} on east of said Taylor Springs road, in front of and east of the said Massanetta or Taylor Springs, nor were the said Wade Green and Dorsey Hensley or either of them with the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley on the said night of the 22d day of September, 1908, between nine and ten o'clock, nor at any other hour that night, when the said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley drove in a wagon along the said public ^{known as Rockingham Turnpike} road by or near the said barn of the said Mrs. Sarah M Van Pelt, nor in truth and fact did the said wagon occupied by said Layton, Reuben and Kemper Hensley pass the barn of said Mrs. Sarah M Van Pelt, on the night of September 22, 1908, without stopping near said barn on said Turnpike, whereby the said Wade Green did then and there, upon the said trial in the County aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully and corruptly, swear falsely, and feloniously commit perjury against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
