Handwritten text on a piece of aged, yellowed paper with a torn top edge. The text is written in cursive and is mostly illegible due to fading and the angle of the page. There are several large, dark, horizontal strokes that appear to be corrections or heavy pen marks. The text is arranged in approximately 10 lines, with some lines being significantly more faded than others. The paper has a slightly textured appearance and shows signs of age, including some minor staining and discoloration.

If you find the prisoner not-guilty you will say so and no more.

If you find the prisoner guilty as charged in the indictment you will say so and ascertain his punishment - which shall be confinement in the penitentiary not less than ~~one~~ one nor more than ten years or in the discretion of the jury confinement in jail not exceeding twelve months and fined not exceeding $500.

If you find the prisoner not-guilty of the felony aforesaid but guilty of petit larceny you will say so and ascertain his punishment - which shall be confinement in jail not less than 15 days nor more than six months or fined not exceeding $100. or both.

J. B. WOOD, SUPERINTENDENT
D. F. O'NEIL, ASST. SUPT.

RICHMOND, VA.

APRIL 18, 1911.

Honorable T. N. Haas,
Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Dear Sir:

I am advised by the Sheriff of Rockingham County that he has confined in his jail, prisoner William Dorman, who is available for work with the State Convict Road Force, and I would respectfully ask that you enter the necessary order which will enable me to secure this man for work with the road force, in accordance with section 3, chapter 84, acts of 1906.

Thanking you in advance for an early reply in this connection, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,

J. B. Wood
