THE COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA.

To the Sheriff of Rockingham County greeting:

We command you that you take Rebecca J. Eaton if she be found within your County, and her safely keep, until she shall satisfy us $ 25⁰⁰, which we lately in our Circuit Court of Rockingham County, have recovered against her for the fine assessed upon her for ^{a misdemeanor} ~~selling~~ selling liquor to a minor committed by her on August 1-1911 against our peace and dignity; Also $ 41 31 ^{only $17⁰⁰} which to us in our said Court were adjudged for costs in that behalf expended, whereof the said Rebecca J. Eaton is convicted as appears to us of record; and that if you have the same before our said Court, at the Court House, on the First day of the next term, being the 15th day of July 1912, to render unto us the fine and costs aforesaid. And have then and there this writ.

Witness D. H. Lee Martz, Clerk of our said Court, at the Court House thereof on this first day of July 1912. and the 156 year of the Commonwealth.

D. H. Lee Martz Clerk.

Received by me, Sheriff of Rockingham County, Virginia, on July 15, 1912, by authority of the Circuit Court of Rockingham County, Virginia, the sum of $25.00 and $41.31 for the fine and costs assessed against Rebecca J. Eaton for selling liquor to a minor on August 1, 1911.

Sheriff Rockingham Co.

Know all Men by these Presents,

THAT WE Rebecca Jane Eaton, and George W. Eaton & Ashby Lawson

are held and firmly bound unto the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the sum of Five hundred

to the true payment of which, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated the ninth day of December 1911, and in the 126 year of the Commonwealth, and we, and each of us hereby waive the benefit of the Homestead exemption as to the obligation of this bond, also any claim or right to discharge any liability to the Commonwealth arising under said bond or by virtue of said office, post, or trust, with Coupons detached from bonds of this State.

The condition of the above obligation is such, That Whereas the above bound Rebecca J. Eaton was on the 9th day of December 1911 convicted in the Circuit Court of Rockingham Co. of a misdemeanor on the charge of selling ardent spirits without having license so to do and was thereupon required by an order of the court to give bond as required by the statute for such cases made and provided: now therefore if the said Rebecca J. Eaton shall not within twelve months from the date of said last mentioned order, that is to say, from the 9th day of December 1911 violate any of the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of Virginia approved March 16, 1911 constituting Chapter 196 of the acts of the General Assembly of Virginia of 1910 then this bond shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.
