TO THE HON. H. W. BERTRAM,
JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCKINGHAM COUNTY:

We, the undersigned persons, of the Cootes Store neighborhood, whose respective homes lie within the radius of a circle extending approximately two miles from the home of the hereinafter mentioned Benjamin Carr, respectfully represent :

That the said Benjamin Carr is a son of Charles Carr, a resident of the Cootes Store community, and to the best of our knowledge, information and belief became, in September 1938, nineteen years of age;

That we have long known the said Benjamin Carr and can vouch for the fact that until the happening of the unfortunate event which led to his indictment on a charge of housebreaking with intent to commit larceny, he bore in his community, an excellent reputation for honesty, industry, and general integrity of character;

That notwithstanding the gravity of the offense with which he is charged, it is our belief and hope that he is not by nature of criminal tendencies or instincts, and would not be likely again to commit a criminal offense;

That this being the first offense of the accused it is our earnest belief that under all the circumstances, the prospect for making the accused hereafter a good and worthy citizen would be greatly enhanced by suspension of any sentence that might be imposed on him for punishment by confinement in prison;

That Charles Carr, the father of the said Benjamin Carr, is a worthy citizen of the Cootes Store community and enjoys the confidence and respect of the people of the community generally ;

TO THE HON. R. W. BENTHAM,
JUDGE OF THE DISTRICT COURT FOR ROCKWELL COUNTY.

We, the undersigned persons of the Coates Store neighborhood, whose respective names are within the lines of a circle extending approximately two miles from the base of the notarized mentioned Benjamin Carr, respectfully request:
That the said Benjamin Carr is a son of Charles Carr, a resident of the Coates Store community, and to the best of our knowledge, information and belief known, in September 1938, nineteen years of age;

That we have long known the said Benjamin Carr and can vouch for the fact that until the happening of the unfortunate event which led to his indictment on a charge of housebreaking, the said Benjamin Carr was a person of good character, an excellent reputation for honesty, industry, and general integrity of character;

That notwithstanding the gravity of the offense with which he is charged, it is our belief and hope that he is not by nature of criminal tendencies or instincts, and would not be likely again to commit a criminal offense;

That this being the first offense of the accused it is our earnest belief that under all the circumstances, the prospect for making the accused hereafter a good and worthy citizen would be greatly enhanced by suspension of any sentence that might be imposed on him for conviction by confinement in prison;

That Charles Carr, the father of the said Benjamin Carr, is a worthy citizen of the Coates Store community and enjoys the confidence and respect of the people of the community generally;

That the social conditions existing at the home of the said Charles Carr are such as would be beneficial to his said son, Benjamin ;

That we have occasion to believe that there are circumstances in mitigation of the offense with which the said Benjamin Carr is charged, and on the whole it is our belief that should the said Benjamin Carr be convicted of an offense which might be punishable by confinement in jail or penitentiary, it would be compatible with the public interest that execution of sentence of confinement might be suspended ^{and} ~~that~~ that the accused, if such action be deemed advisable, be put under probation under the supervision of the probation officer, during good behavior, for such time and under such conditions of probation as the court may determine;

That we are informed and believe that full reparation for the value of the property taken by the said Benjamin Carr and others, has been made.

Respectfully submitted,
