Dear Madam and Sirs:

I have before me the application for pardon of Malcolm Eppard, convicted in July 1942, in the Circuit Court of Rockingham County of robbery and sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary.

This man has served more than two years with a good record. Apparently he was of previous good reputation. The Parole Board has made a thorough investigation in this case and advise that in view of their findings a conditional pardon should be granted this man in order that he may enter the United States Army.

In view of the time this man has served with a good record and upon the recommendation of the Parole Board, I am granting him a conditional pardon, effective July 21, 1944, upon the condition that he enter the United States Army and if for any reason he is not accepted for service in the Army that he be released under supervision of the Parole Board, and upon the further condition that should he fail to comply with the penal laws of the Commonwealth this pardon shall be null and void and he will be returned to the penitentiary to serve the remainder of his sentence.

Very truly yours,
