

The Musical Million and Fireside Friend.

A 16 Page Monthly Magazine of Music, Poetry, and Home Literature. Motto, "The Good, the True, the Beautiful."

ALDINE S. KIEFFER, Editor.

THE RUEBUSH-KIEFFER Co., Publishers.

DAYTON, VIRGINIA, Sep-4 1894

Dear Coz. Boyte.

I did not get to talk half-way, 1/10th of what I had to say to you. Now I want to whisper something in your ear, hush, hark! I want to see a joint-"shop" at Singer's Glen, and the thing, or idea may be made to "materialize" of Jno S. Acker, and P. Funk & Sons would combine, and put up an office, and do all the financing - receive all monies - and make all disburse-ments, etc? I honestly believe that I could attend to other matters suc-cessfully for all concerned. Is it worth while to come down and see? Ask Jno S. & others - in a quiet way, and let me know if it worth while to come down and see.

Yours sincerely & fraternally,
 Aldine S. Kieffer