

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,

COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM, to-wit:

In the Circuit Court of said County:

The grand jurors in and for the body of said county of Rockingham and now attending said court at its October term, 1924, upon their oaths do present that Etta Walton, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in the said county of Rockingham, did unlawfully manufacture, sell, offer, keep, store and expose for sale, give away, transport, dispense, solicit, advertise and receive orders for ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid do further present that Etta Walton, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in the said county of Rockingham, did unlawfully have in her possession ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

And the jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid do further present that Etta Walton, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in the said county of Rockingham, did unlawfully receive ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of John Dove and John S. Funk, witnesses sworn in court and sent before the grand jury to give evidence.

BE IT REMEMBERED that on the 5th day of September 1924,

Etta Walton and Zachariah Raynes came before me W. L. Dinsmore, a Justice of the Peace of the said county of Rockingham, and severally and respectively acknowledged themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in manner and form following, that is to say: the said

Etta Walton in the sum of TWO HUNDRED & FIFTY Dollars

good and lawful money of the United States, and the said Zachariah Raynes in the sum of TWO HUNDRED & FIFTY Dollars of like good and lawful money, to be respectively made and levied of their several goods and chattels, lands and tenements, and they severally waived the benefit of their Homestead Exemption as to this obligation, and also waived any claim or right to discharge any liability to the Commonwealth arising under this recognizance with coupons detached from the bonds of this State, to the use of the Commonwealth of Virginia if the said

Etta Walton shall make default in the performance of the conditions underwritten.

The condition of the above recognizance is such that if the above bound

Etta Walton do and shall personally appear before the Circuit Court of Rockingham on the 20th day of the October Grand Jury Term next thereof, being the 20th day of October 1924, at the Court-house thereof, and then and there answer the Commonwealth of Virginia concerning a certain Felony whereof the said Etta Walton stands charged, and shall not depart thence without the leave of said Court, then the above recognizance shall be void and of no effect, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Taken and acknowledged before me, the day and year first above written.
