

This indenture witnesseth that I James Quinn one of the overseers of the poor of the parish and county of Rockingham and state of Virginia and in the district of Harrisonburg by an order of the court of said county at the December term one thousand and seven hundred and ninety four hath and by these presents doth put and bind Felix Boicourt of the age of fourteen years the eleventh day of Apriel last past unto Andrew Shanklin of the aforesaid county and parish to serve him until he arrives to the age of twenty one years during all the said term of time the said apprentice his masters faithfully shall serve his secrets keep his lawfull command gladly everywhere obey he shall do no damage to his said master nor suffer it to be done by others he shall neither buy nor sell nor commit fornication nor contract matrimony or play at cards dice or any other unlawfull game with his owm goods or the goods of others whereby his master may have damage nor haunt alehouses nor taverns or playhouses he shall not waist his masters goods or lend them unlawfully to any nor absent himself night nor day from his masters service without leave but in all things behave himself as a faithfull servant or apprentice aught to do;

In consideration whereof the said master shall provide and procure sufficient meat drink washing and lodging and apperal fitting for such apprentice during the term and teach him the said apprentice to read the Bible perfectky and wright a leageable ahnd and as far in arthmatic as to include the rule of three and the said master shall teach or cause him to be taught the art trade or mistery of house carpenter and joyner as far as in his power or said apprentice is capable of learning and at the expiration of the above term shall pay or cause to be paid to said apprentice three pounds ten shillings and one good suit of cloaths exclusive of his wareing apperl

In witness whereof each parties binds themselves to the other interchangeably sealed with our seals and dated this 27th day of December 1794

Sealed and delivered in present of Benjamin Harrison Bethuel Herring