

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,

COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM, to-wit:

In the Circuit Court of said County:

The grand jurors in and for the body of said county of Rockingham and now attending said Court at its April term, 1928, upon their oaths do present that Ashby Crawford, within one year next prior to the finding of this indictment, in said county of Rockingham, did ^{on March 21st 1928} unlawfully and feloniously manufacture distilled ardent spirits, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

This indictment is found on the testimony of J. L. Dirting, W. E. Thurber, G. A. Lawson, W. E. Lucas, and W. T. Rexrode, witnesses sworn in Court and sent before the grand jury to give evidence.

Commonwealth of Virginia,
Rockingham County, to-wit:

Be it remembered that on the 24th day of March, 1928, Ashby Crawford and G. W. Lam ^{and Mary C. Crawford} came before me, Harry M. Strickler, Bail Commissioner, of the said County of Rockingham and severally and respectively acknowledged themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in manner and form following, that is to say: the said Ashby Crawford and G. W. Lam in the sum of Seven Hundred and Fifty dollars and the said G. W. Lam ^{and the said Mary C. Crawford} in the sum of Seven Hundred and Fifty dollars ^{and the said Mary C. Crawford} good and lawful money of the United States, to be respectively made and levied of their several goods and chattels, lands and tenements, and they severally waive the benefit of their Homestead Exemption as to this obligation, to the use of the Commonwealth of Virginia, if the said Ashby Crawford shall make default in the performance of the condition underwritten.

The condition of the above recognizance is such that if the above bound Ashby Crawford do and shall personally appear before the Circuit Court of the said County on the first day of the next term thereof which is on the _____ day of April 1928, at the Court House thereof, and then and there answer the Commonwealth for and concerning a certain Felony by him committed, wherewith he stands charged, or to any time or times to which the proceedings may be continued or further heard, and before any Court or Judge, hereafter having or holding and proceedings in connection with the said charge, and not depart thence without leave of said Court, and be bound under this recognizance until said charge is finally disposed or until it is declared void by order of a competent Court, then this recognizance shall be null and void, otherwise shall remain in full force and virtue

Harry M. Strickler Bail Commissioner.

and Ashby dollars,

As it appears that on the 2nd day of March, 1928, Abby Crawford and M. M. Bann and C. Crawford of the said County of Rockingham and severally and respectively acknowledged themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in money and for the following, that is to say: the said Abby Crawford and the said Abby Crawford and M. M. Bann and C. Crawford in the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars and lawful money of the United States. The condition of the above recognizance is such that if the said Abby Crawford do and shall personally appear before the Circuit Court of the said County on the first day of April 1928 at the Court House thereof, and then and there answer the recognizance for and concerning a certain Debt by him contracted, wherewith he stands charged, or he any time or times to which the proceedings may be continued or further made, and before any Court or Judge, Magistrate having or holding and exercising jurisdiction with the said charge, and not before anyone without leave of said Court, and he bound under this recognizance until said charge is finally disposed of until it is declared void by order of a competent Court, then this recognizance shall be null and void, otherwise null and void.
