

The State Commission on Conservation and Development of the State of Virginia,
Petitioner,

v.

At Law No. 1829.

Cassandra Lawson Atkins, and others,
and Fifty-two Thousand, Five Hundred,

sixty-one acres (52,561) more or less,
of land in Rockingham County, Virginia, defendants.

Filed in the Clerk's Office
Rockingham County, Va.

SEP 13 1931

Robert Switzer Clerk

TO THE HONORABLE H. W. BERTRAM, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT

COURT OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY, VIRGINIA:

YOUR Petitioner, the State Commission on Conservation and Development of the State of Virginia, respectfully alleges and shows that within the area in Rockingham County, Virginia, sought to be condemned in the above styled proceedings, there are one hundred and twenty-seven (127) tracts, or parcels of land, more particularly described in maps of the same, numbered from one to one hundred and twenty-seven (127) inclusive, which maps are attached hereto and prayed to be taken and read as a part hereof; that said maps refer to and describe parcels, or tracts of land, within the said area, as to which petitioner has heretofore been informed that the person, or persons, whose names appear endorsed on said maps have some right, title, claim, or interest in and to said tracts, or parcels of land, although no claim by or on behalf of any one of said persons, or by or on behalf of any person, has been filed in the course of said proceeding, with respect to said several tracts; that said several tracts are known as the tract, or tracts, of the person, or persons, whose name, or names, appear at the head of the respective maps.

YOUR Petitioner, therefore, prays that the Court shall order the Board of Appraisal Commissioners, heretofore appointed, to ascertain the value of the fee simple estate of each of said tracts, or parcels of land referred to, after due notice to petitioner, giving him a full opportunity to be heard and present evidence as to the facts of value.

Respectfully submitted,

STATE COMMISSION ON CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE STATE OF VIRGINIA.

BY

COUNSEL.
