The State Commission on Conservation
& Development of the State of Virginia, Petitioner, v.

Cassandra Lawson Atkins, et als, defendants.

In Re: Distribution of proceeds of condemnation for Tract No.228.

This day came the State Commission on Conservation & Development by counsel, and moved the Court to enter an order directing the Treasurer of the State of Virginia, to pay to it, out of the proceeds of condemnation of Tract No. 228, the sum of $5.00, representing the amount of a certain pledge made by Raleigh Morris, who claimed to be the owner of said tract, to said State Commission on Conservation & Development, as a contribution for the establishment of Shenandoah National Park, and in support of its said motion the said Commission exhibited to the Court its motion in writing setting forth all the facts in relation thereto, which has been heretofore filed herein.

Upon consideration whereof, it appearing to the Court that the claim of State Commission is not based upon any lien, either on the land condemned or on the proceeds of condemnation, and that said Commission has failed to obtain the consent of the parties entitled to the proceeds of condemnation to the payment of its claim, it is accordingly adjudged and ordered that the motion of the Commission for the payment of said claim out of the proceeds of condemnation for said tract be and the same is hereby denied.
