

This indenture made the eleventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and sixteen between Aaron Solomon one of the overseers of the poor for the western district of Rockingham County of the one part and Andrew Doreman of the other part witnesseth.

That the said overseer of the poor in pursuance to an order of the December Court of one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, doth put and bind Elizabeth Harrison eight years old the sixteenth day of July last as an apprentice to the said Andrew Doreman with him after the manner of an apprentice to dwell and serve until she arrives to the age of eighteen years to learn the mystery of housewifery.

In consideration of which the said Doreman binds to the said Solomon or his successors overseer of the poor to teach to instruct or cause to be taught or instructed the said Elizabeth to read English correctly and to write a good fair hand and learn her the business of spinning, sewing, knitting, and during the said term.

And moreover to find the said Elizabeth Harrison in good and sufficient cloathing meat, drink, washing, and lodging fit and convenient for such an apprentice.

And also at the end of her service shall pay and satisfy to the said Elizabeth twenty dollars that being the freedom dues allowed by the court.

In witness whereof the overseer of the poor aforesaid hath hereunto set his hands and seal and the said Doreman hath set his hands and seal and the said Doreman hath set his hand and seal the date above written

Signed and sealed in the presence of